Theo Paphitis opens Cisco Academy at Stanbridge Earls School

Stanbridge Earls School, Romsey, welcomed business guru Theo Paphitis, of TV's Dragons' Den fame, to Speech Day on 3 July. Theo presented the prizes and officially opened the school's new Cisco Academy, which provides practical IT courses for students. Theo was accompanied by his son Alex, who is dyslexic and is a former Stanbridge Earls pupil.

Stanbridge Earls, which was designated Outstanding for Care by Ofsted in February, offers superb facilities, and prides itself on providing an excellent holistic education, combined with the highest standards of pastoral care for children.
